On Tuesday, 01/19/10, the Litchfield Police Department received a complaint of criminal damage to Property/Burglary at the Madison Park School. Damage was to an entry way door on the storage shed located north of the school on the rear parking lot. The door had been kicked in causing damage to the door jam and lock. School officials determined nothing was taken during the incident which could have occurred anytime between Friday, 01/15/10 through Tuesday, 01/19/10. Police suspect a link between this incident and other incidents involving damage to school property in the last year.
